TALKING ROCK SELECTS OB SPORTS MANAGEMENT TO OVERSEE CLUB OPERATIONS

Prescott, Ariz. (March 29, 2007) – Talking Rock, a private, master planned community located just north of Prescott, Ariz. has appointed OB Sports Golf Management to oversee club operations for the community’s golf course and clubhouse-style facility, the Ranch Compound. OB Sports is managing all aspects of club operations at Talking Rock, including golf operations, food and beverage services, turf care, and member relations.

According to Phil Green, president of OB Sports Golf Management, “OB Sports is honored to join the Talking Rock team. With the completion of the Ranch Compound, Talking Rock’s world class golf course will be complemented by a truly world-class amenity.”

To be fully operational by July, the Ranch Compound is a 32,000-square-foot complex containing resort-style amenities including fitness facilities; a regulation sized lap pool; tennis courts; golf locker rooms; a post office; coffee shop; and numerous dining options. A Jay-Morrish-designed 7,350-yard championship golf course intertwines throughout Talking Rock’s custom homesites, Ranch Cottages and Ranch Homes.

“Our residents enjoy Talking Rock for the ease of living and the top-notch service provided by our staff. With the assistance of OB Sports we can ensure this same level of service will sustain as we prepare for the Ranch Compound grand opening,” stated Jim Leisenring general manger of Talking Rock.
